Full-Size Pickups

work hard, play hard

The full-size GMC Sierra is one tough breed of truck. Enhance that breed with Starcraft's superb quality and handcraftsmanship and the result is a truck of impeccable character that is as versatile as it is rugged. You want a pickup with distinctive styling that stands out in the crowd. You need a pickup that's just as at home hauling feed from town as it is taking the family out camping. You need a Starcraft!

Starcraft customizes a variety of trucks in packages to suit any taste. From short beds to long beds, crew cabs to bonus cabs, let Starcraft build you a truck as distinctive as your personal transportation needs. Whether you choose the functional yet stylish features of the basic package ST-10, or the ultimate luxury and comfort of the renowned package ST-30 and ST-35, Starcraft has the truck for you.

The Starcraft Startop

Superior design and construction makes the Startop the strongest, best looking truck cap available today. The Starcraft Startop gives your GM pickup the look of a Blazer or Jimmy with its clean, automotive styling. The Startop is built with rugged, fiberglass/Klegecell composite, unlike other materials that require odd shapes to add structural strength. All windows are built tough and strong with genuine, deep-tinted, automotive safety glass. The tailgate window has a locking feature with an emergency interior release handle. Each Startop is painted with factory coded paint to exactly match the color of your truck. Your truck's outside cargo lamp lights the interior of the Startop through a transparent panel.

(Above) The dash and forward console of Starcraft's full-size pickups are accented with hand finished teakwood.

(Right) Teakwood and fabric trimmed door panels are just one of the many standard features found on the ST-30 package. The doors are fully insulated.

Trucks to enhance your lifestyle

Starcraft understands people who love trucks. Your truck is more to you than just a way to get around – it's a way of life! We know that your truck is like a comfortable old friend that never lets you down. You need a truck that can pull your RV up a steep grade, or trailer the horses to your daughter's next show. But most of all, you need a truck you can depend on. Whether you need to get your family home safe in a driving blizzard, or just take the soccer team to practice, Starcraft builds a truck to fit your lifestyle.

Anyone who thinks a truck can't be as stylish as it is tough, hasn't slipped behind the wheel of a Starcraft. There's not a truck on the road today that can surpass Starcraft's uncompromising dedication to quality. Our trucks are built right the first time and guaranteed with a no-nonsense warranty that's written in plain English. You can count on the finest parts and service, now, and in the future. After all, Starcraft's reputation for customer satisfaction dates back to 1903. Your Starcraft dealer will help you design your dream truck.

S-15 Jimmys and Pickup Trucks
